

Mrs. Hernandez's Classroom Rules and Expectations

Rules & Procedures

Entering the Classroom

1. Quietly walk in and be prepared for the day.
2. Go to your seat quietly and take out your chromebook. (If you don't have your chromebook, get paper and pencil.)
3. Check the board for materials needed that day and get them out on your desk.

4. Silently complete your warm up for the day.
5. If you finish early, silently complete missing work or read until the lesson begins.

Getting your Attention

- Stop what you are doing
- Voices should be at a 0 (no talking)
- Eyes should be on me

- Countdown 5, 4, 3, 2, 1, 0
- If you can hear my voice clap once...

Dismissal

- Wait until I dismiss you to pack up.
 - The class will be dismissed late if instructions are not followed.
 - You can't leave class early.
- Put any borrowed materials back where they go and do not leave trash behind.
 - Students who choose to leave trash behind will be dismissed late.

Expectation #1

Follow the Student Code of Conduct.

Expectation #2

Respect yourself, the classroom, the teacher, and others in the classroom.

Expectation #3

Follow directions the first time they are given.

Expectation #4

Follow the classroom procedures at all times.

Expectation #5

Hold yourself accountable for your words and your actions.

In this classroom...

I want to give each of you what you need.
This means that things might not always seem fair.

Each of you is different and needs different things. Please remember that what is fair to you may not be fair to another student.

Consequences

Choosing not to follow expectations will result in the following:

- Warning
- Hallway Conversation
- Parent notification
- Detention
- Office Referral

* If your actions are severe, I will need to immediately contact the office for an office referral.

Voice Levels

Voice Level	Sounds & Looks Like
ONE	- Whisper - Partner talk (Only your partner should be able to hear you)
TWO	- Regular talking voice - Table Talk (Only your table should be able to hear you)
THREE	- Presentation Voice
FOUR	- Outside Voice

Restroom & Water

- You will have 4 passes a semester to use for the restroom. For water, you may ask, and I can let you go as needed.
 - If you misuse the privilege of going to the restroom or using water (walking around, taking longer than usual) your privilege will be revoked.
- You may not go during the first or last 10 minutes of class (10 minute rule)
- You may go during group or independent work.
 - This means you will not go while I am teaching/notes.
- On test days, you may only go after your test is complete.

Tardiness

- Be on time every day.
- If you are tardy 3 times, you will receive detention in my classroom during lunch time. If you fail to attend detention, you will get a referral to the office.
 - This is the first consequence. If tardies continue after this, more consequences will follow.
- If late, come in silently and without interrupting others and get to work.

Cell Phones

- No Phones Allowed unless approved by teacher beforehand. (There will be times, I will allow you to use your cellphone during independent or group work).
- Please put your phone in your backpack when you walk in.
- If I see a phone during class time:
 - Warning
 - Taken up
 - If there is a reason you need to have your phone out, please have a conversation with me about it.

Electronics On Test Days

- ALL electronic devices must be put away during test times. No exception, except for chromebooks. If you have a cellphone out, you will receive an automatic fail for the test.
- You can have electronics back once everyone is finished testing.

Food & Drinks

- No food or drinks allowed.
 - Water is allowed. Water must be in a closed container with a lid and under your desk unless you are physically taking a sip.
- Occasionally, there will be candy or chips given out in class.
 - If I see wrappers on the floor after giving out candy, your class will lose the candy privilege.
